Case number:

5
6 Neal Conroy,
7 Plaintiff,
8 vs.
9 Facebook,
10 Defendant

COMPLAINT

11 1. Jurisdiction. This court has jurisdiction over this complaint because it arises under the 12 laws of the United States.

13 2. Venue. Venue is appropriate because the defendant lies in the jurisdiction of this 14 district.

15 3. Intradistrict assignment. This lawsuit should be assigned to the San Francisco Division
16 of this Court because it took place in Menlo Park, CA.

17 4. In May of 2021, Facebook deleted a post I made that started on March of 2019. When 18 Facebook deletes a post you make that did not includes images, Facebook allows you to see 19 the entirety of the post you made. But the post that got deleted, was the start of a thread (like 20 parent post), which had a bunch of "reply-to" posts. So because the parent-post was deleted, 21 then all the reply-to posts were also deleted, as well as the images attached to them. The 22 parent-post had multiple images attached and most of the reply-to posts had an image attached.
23 I was unable to view any of the reply-to posts, or any of the images attached to any of the posts.
24 I would like to be sent a copy of them back. So to be clear, in this lawsuit I am not seeking any 25 monetary compensation, nor am I disputing the posts being deleted (or requesting they be 26 undeleted). I simply want to be sent a copy of all the posts and images that were deleted

(because just the parent post was deleted, most likely due to a violation, then all the reply-to posts and their images were also deleted.). An attempt to contact Facebook about my posts in June of 2021, they have not responded. How Facebook can send me that I am negotiable, they can send me including a notification for all my posts and images, or to the e-mail registered with the account. I also want to say that Trump's lawsuit to Facebook delayed this lawsuit a little. I saw on July 7, 2021, that Trump was suing Facebook, albeit for different reasons, (and in Miami court), he seems to want to challenge the authority of Facebook that can ban whoever they want whenever they want, and maybe some smaller things. I was hoping that a pending outcome in that case may affect the outcome of this lawsuit, so I'm glad his lawsuit came 1st. But this of course, puts me to want to complain about similar things. A user on Facebook once called me a "libtard" and I responded back some posts later along the lines of "You may be a Republican, but your debating skills, are like a Democrat, and liberal-retard" and I got a Facebook ban a few days later. My appeals to that ban and to the Facebook Oversight Board have both proved unsuccessful. I also seem to lack the ability to edit my biography (quotes) in my profile, and it's been like that for over a year now. Userid 624063638. Regards.
